

About EDAM

The Economic Developers Association Manitoba (EDAM) was formed in 1993 to improve communication, contact and liaison within the economic development profession. It is an independent, non-profit, incorporated association of persons directly engaged in economic development in Manitoba.

EDAM is one of several regional and provincial affiliates of the Economic Developers Association of Canada (EDAC), the national professional organization of economic development practitioners in Canada. Through its affiliation with other provincial associations and EDAC, EDAM provides its membership with a network and linkage with the profession across Canada.

Mission

EDAM supports economic development practitioners and their MB communities by providing professional development and networking opportunities, promoting the profession and influencing public policy.

Vision

EDAM is a leading resource for professional development and serves as a focal point for collaboration on innovative economic development policy and practices.

This is accomplished through:

- Provision of professional development opportunities for economic development professionals
- A collaborative approach to innovative economic development policy and practices
- Broad range of EDAM membership expertise
- Providing a forum of networking with fellow members to exchange information and ideas reflecting best practices, procedures, trends, and policy pertaining to economic development
- Being the independent Manitoba body that gives careful thought and unprejudiced consideration to problems affecting the provincial field of economic development

Member Benefits

Members of EDAM are provided access to a variety of professional services, networking and training opportunities, and are regularly exposed to new ideas and initiatives in the ever-expanding field of economic development. As a member of EDAM, you'll enjoy:

- Attending meetings and forums at special member rates
- Subscription to "in the Loop" and e-mail communications
- Promotion of your organization on EDAM website www.edamonline.ca
- Job postings circulated to membership at no cost

Associate/Corporate members benefit from:

- One feature article annually in EDAM newsletter
- Information/promotions distributed to membership up to 3 x /year
- Information distributed at EDAM forums

EDAM works on your behalf to:

- Increase the profile and awareness of economic development practitioners and organizations
- Provide a collective voice on local, regional, provincial and national economic development issues and concerns
- Promote professionalism in the field
- Provide a vehicle for communication between economic development practitioners in Manitoba

Who Should Join
